

When the installer is started, you will most likely see the following message

You need to click on " More information" and a new button will appear...

Click on the button to start the installation.

This can be removed by signing the installer. Cheapest certificate for software with an open source code costs 70 €. If this amount is collected from voluntary donations, the certificate will be purchased and the installation will be hassle-free.